
The NCD Challenge:
Current status and priorities for sustained action

The Graduate Institute, Geneva, Switzerland, 8-9 June 2017
(Maison de la Paix, Chemin Eugène-Rigot 2, Geneva)

Version: 7 June 2017

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

Wednesday, 7 June 2017

Venue: La Perle du Lac Restaurant, Geneva

19:00-20:30	Opening reception: <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Introduction of participants– Scope, purpose and objectives of the meeting– Expected outcomes	La Perle du Lac Restaurant 126 Rue de Lausanne Geneva
-------------	---	---

Thursday, 8 June 2017

Venue: The Graduate Institute, Maison de la Paix, Meeting Centre (Ground Floor)
2E Chemin Eugène-Rigot, Geneva

08:30-08:45	Welcome and a quick review of the agenda	Ilona Kickbusch Ala Alwan Oleg Chestnov (by video)
08:45-10:15	Setting the scene (first part): Where do we stand today, what progress has been made between 2000 and 2017, and what are the plans until 2018?	Short presentation by Douglas Bettcher followed by a moderated discussion
10:15-10:30	Break
10:30-12:30	Setting the scene (second part): What are the commitments made, why has	Short presentation by Ala

	progress been slow in implementing them, and what is impeding better results?	Alwan followed by a moderated discussion
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:30	Panel 1: What are the priorities for health system strengthening and addressing gaps in NCD health care as part of UHC?	Short interventions by Srinath Reddy, Agnes Soucat, and David Kerr followed by a moderated discussion
14.30-15.30	Panel 2: How to finance national NCD programmes through domestic, bilateral and multilateral channels, and how to secure ODA to help countries achieve SDG target 3.4 on NCDs?	Short interventions by Dean Jamison, Rachel Nugent, and Thomas Bollyky followed by a moderated discussion
15:30-15:45	Break
15:45-16:45	Panel 3: How to address the gaps in delivering technical assistance to help countries to achieve global NCD targets for 2025 and SDG target 3.4 for 2030?	Short interventions by Joy St John, Colin Tukuitonga and Peter Burney followed by a moderated discussion
16:45-17:45	Panel 4: How to strengthen engagement of sectors beyond health, which is essential for achieving NCD targets?	Short interventions by Robert Beaglehole, Srinath Reddy, and Katie Dain followed by a moderated discussion
Evening	Evening session for the moderators and Secretariat to summarize the inputs of participants and conclusions of the discussions of the first day

Friday, 9 June 2017

Venue: The Graduate Institute, Maison de la Paix, Meeting Centre (Ground Floor)
2E Chemin Eugène-Rigot, Geneva

08:30-09:30	Panel 5: How to reduce the impact of the globalization of the commercial determinants of NCDs, and how to strengthen the contribution and accountability of the private sector?	Short interventions by Ilona Kickbusch and Corinna Hawkes followed by a moderated discussion
09:30-10:30	Panel 6: How to strengthen the contribution of NGOs, philanthropic foundations and academic institutions to support national NCD responses, and how to measure and publish their results?	Short interventions by Srinath Reddy, Shaukat Sadikot and Katie Dain followed by a moderated discussion
10:30-10:45	Break
11:00-12:00	Panel 7: Global monitoring and accountability framework: Is it working well? What is needed to develop a more feasible and effective framework?	Short interventions by Robert Beaglehole, Samira Asma and Corinna followed by a moderated discussion
12:00-13:00	Panel 8: How can countries integrate NCD responses into national SDG responses?	Short interventions by Joy St John and Mary Nyamangon followed by a moderated discussion
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:00	Reporting back from Moscow and Geneva	Veronika Skvortsóva Zsuzsanna Jakab Gauden Galea Oleg Chestnov Ala Alwan Ilona Kickbusch
15:00-17:00	Recommendations and way forward	Short interventions followed by a moderated discussion

===